

5 partners

129
communities
supported

duration of the program

Overall investment by Z Zurich Foundation

USD
+33
million

Flood Resilience
Measurement Framework tested in

75 communities

with  4 additional
partners

The Zurich Flood Resilience Program is a multi-sectoral alliance focusing on finding practical ways to help communities in developed and developing countries strengthen their resilience to flood risk.

Find out more:

www.zurich.com/en/corporate-responsibility/flood-resilience

www.floodresilience.net

+200 000
people receiving
information from EWS

3

online
knowledge portals about
flood resilience

10

multi-purpose
community
centres built

9024

People trained in preparedness
and prevention

148

Community
response
teams created

USD
1 820 700

Investment leveraged from public and private actors